

David Gerstein

“ Gerstein has always been motivated by a sense of adventure, even mischief. often he came to conscious artistic decisions, which brought him to make remarkable shifts and turns in his work.”

David Gerstein is an Israeli figurative painter and sculptor who has developed a skillful technique for creating dynamic three-dimensional wall sculptures. He uses laser technologies for steel and aluminum cutouts and hand-paints them with acrylic paint. Through combining metalwork and painting, his colorful works exude brisk movements and multilayered dimensions. His works are narratives of life experience and nature, bringing a universal language of playfulness, humor, and optimism to the public at large in many countries. David has had over one hundred exhibitions worldwide, has multiple permanent outdoor installations, and several book publications.
