

Robin Austin

“Robin is a force of nature, an aesthetic alchemist, who converts cultural emotionality into his signature portraits, igniting smiles and attracting fans world-wide.” - Gene Seidman, New York art dealer.

Robin Austin has always been a storyteller and does that by creating rich mosaics reflecting images of our shared cultural heritage. Each signed and limited edition work is a visual celebration of intimate moments captured in time. The genius of Robin's art work is in the exhaustive research that goes into each photo canvas - deftly and artistically composed, which is then "baked" on to aluminium through the process of dye-sublimation. The result - a retelling, a chronicling of the spirit of pop culture comprised of thousands of images. Each viewing reveals a facet of the story anew. It is all there: movies, music, fashion, sex, sports, politics, current events - the iconic people that shapes our lives. Robin's artwork graces the walls of collector's homes, restaurants, clubs, and galleries from New York City, Gilles Clement Galleries in Westport Greenwich CT, Tampa FL, the Caribbean, Europe and Australia . Austin was born in Leeds, England, attended school at Shrewsbury, and move to the USA more than 25 years ago. He currently resides in the woods in Weston, CT.
